1. RPO & B bar C Outfitters are now offering an "Old Man's Elk Hunt." That's correct for those of us on the backside of that mountain we just can't climb anymore, here is an opportunity to hunt free ranging elk in Idaho with a guaranteed tag. You will need to bring your ATV or at least a capable four-wheel drive vehicle to get around in.

Arrive October 18 and hunt October 19-24 depart camp October 25. Hunters will be based out of B bar C base camp in LOLO zone unit #10. This is 1 guide x 4 hunter hunt. Full meals and lodging is included. Still hunting is the method here. No spot and stalk. You may sit over a meadow, an active trail or up high overlooking a valley. You should be comfortable shooting out to 400 yards and should bring a 30 caliber rifle. The outfitter will pack out your game and you take it to the processor. Cost of this exceptional opportunity is $2500.00. Elk tag, license, 9% Idaho State tax, gratuity, incidental expenses and pick up at the Missoula airport are not included. You also have the option of purchasing a combination deer, lion, bear tag that is good for one animal for $31.75.

2. Eulalie Hunting Safaris has a great opportunity in 2011 for a five (5) day Dagga Boy hunt in Zimbabwe for the ridiculously low price of $11,000.00. All hunting will take place in the Makuti-concession. 40"+ Dagga Boys are certainly possible. Contact me (bhwilliams917@gmail.com) for additional details and dates for this hunt.
